Town River Lantern Evening

CLEARWATER TOWN CULTURAL COMMITTEE
Date: Saturday, August 8 (6:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.)
Place: Stepping-Stone Lawn beside Clearwater Bridge

Come celebrate summer evening by floating paper lanterns illuminated with reusable LED lights! From 5:30 p.m., visitors can decorate a wooden-base paper lantern with brush pens for 300 yen at the riverside tent.

Environmental Promise: Unlike traditional candles, all lanterns are collected by volunteer boats two hundred meters downstream at 8:30 p.m. so nothing flows out to sea. If you would like to keep your decorated paper shade as a souvenir, bring your numbered ticket stub to the tent between 8:35 p.m. and 9:00 p.m.

(21) How does the town prevent lanterns from flowing out into the sea?

1 Lanterns are kept inside a gymnasium instead of the river.

2 Visitors tie long ropes to their lanterns from the bridge.

3 The lanterns dissolve completely in river water.

4 Volunteer boats collect all the lanterns downstream at 8:30 p.m.

(22) What should visitors do if they want to take their decorated paper shade home?

1 Show their numbered ticket stub at the tent between 8:35 p.m. and 9:00 p.m.

2 Take it out of the river themselves before 7:00 p.m.

3 Come back to Clearwater Bridge the next morning.

4 Pay an extra 1,000 yen before decorating it.

From: Kaito
To: Riko
Subject: Music and photos for the Grade 9 farewell assembly

Hi Riko,
Thanks for collecting the sports day and school trip photos from all four ninth-grade classes! I put the eighty photos into our slideshow software last night, and the whole video is about six minutes long.

When I showed a test version to Mr. Honda at lunch today, he really liked the order of the scenes, but he noticed two small things we should fix before Friday's rehearsal. First, three photos from Class 9C's chorus contest are a little dark, so I will brighten them tonight on my computer. Second, we still need one cheerful instrumental song to play during the club-activity section in the middle.

Since your older brother plays trumpet in the brass band club, do you think we could use the recording of their autumn concert march? Please ask him tonight if the band adviser allows us to use two minutes of that recording!

Talk to you tomorrow,
Kaito

3B

Preparing the Graduation Photo Slideshow　設問 (23)〜(25)

(23) What will Kaito fix on his computer tonight?

1 He will make three dark chorus-contest photos brighter.

2 He will record a trumpet solo by himself.

3 He will delete all the school trip photos.

4 He will shorten the slideshow from twenty minutes to two minutes.

(24) What is still needed for the middle section of the slideshow?

1 More photos from the seventh-grade entrance ceremony.

2 A cheerful instrumental song for the club-activity scenes.

3 A speech recorded by the school principal.

4 Subtitles in three foreign languages.

(25) What does Kaito ask Riko to check with her older brother tonight?

1 Whether he can fix Mr. Honda's computer on Friday.

2 Whether they can get permission to use part of the brass band's recording.

3 Whether Class 9C won first prize in the chorus contest.

4 Whether he can take eighty new photos tomorrow.

次の英文の内容に関して、(26)から(30)までの質問に対する答えとして最も適切なもの、または文を完成させるのに最も適切なものを1, 2, 3, 4の中から一つ選びなさい。

Table Tennis in the Old School Gym

Five years ago, North Valley Elementary School closed because fewer children lived in the mountain village, and students began riding a school bus to a larger town nearby. Although the classrooms were turned into a small local library, the wooden gymnasium behind the building stayed locked and silent.

Last autumn, fourteen-year-old Soma found four dusty table-tennis tables folded up in the gym's storage room while helping his aunt return library books. Soma loved playing table tennis at his junior high school, yet he had nowhere to practice on weekends without taking a forty-minute bus ride.

Soma wrote a polite proposal to the village council suggesting a "Saturday Morning Open Gym." Retired carpenter Mr. Endo offered to check the floorboards and replace the torn nets, while Soma and two friends made simple posters inviting anyone from age seven to eighty. Only six people showed up on the first Saturday in November, but word spread quickly.

Soon, twenty villagers gathered every week. Older residents who had played table tennis in their twenties turned out to have tricky spin serves that surprised the teenagers, while the students eagerly picked up stray balls and taught beginners how to hold a paddle. On snowy winter mornings when mountain roads were quiet, the sound of bouncing white balls and laughter warmed the old gym once again.

3C Table Tennis in the Old School Gym　設問 (26)〜(30)

(26) Why had the gymnasium at North Valley Elementary School been locked?

1 The village library needed the gym to store wet umbrellas.

2 A heavy snowstorm had knocked down all four walls.

3 Only professional athletes were allowed inside on weekdays.

4 The school had closed five years earlier and only classrooms were reused.

(27) What gave Soma the idea to open the gym on Saturday mornings?

1 He discovered four folded table-tennis tables in the gym storage room.

2 His bus driver asked him to clean the library windows.

3 Mr. Endo gave him a brand-new paddle for his birthday.

4 His teacher assigned a report about Olympic table-tennis players.

(28) How did Mr. Endo help prepare for the Saturday sessions?

1 He drove forty villagers to town in his school bus.

2 He bought four new tables from a sports store.

3 He checked the wooden floor and put up new nets on the tables.

4 He wrote posters in three languages for tourists.

(29) What surprised the teenagers once twenty villagers started coming each week?

1 Elementary school children could lift the heavy tables alone.

2 Older residents could hit clever spin serves from their younger days.

3 The library decided to throw away all its books.

4 Nobody in the village had ever seen a table-tennis ball before.

(30) What is the main point of this story?

1 Teenagers can improve at sports only if they practice alone.

2 Mountain villages should build larger bus terminals instead of libraries.

3 Wooden gymnasiums are too cold to use during winter.

4 A student's idea turned an unused building into a lively place for all ages.
