Preparing for the Pottery Trip

From: Mr. Hayashi
To: Art Club Members
Subject: Saturday's visit to Mashiko Pottery Center

Hi everyone,
I'm excited about our trip to the pottery center this Saturday, May 16! Each member will shape one teacup and one small plate on a potter's wheel.

Clay washes out of cotton clothes easily, so wear old clothes and sneakers you don't mind getting muddy. Also, long fingernails make soft clay bowls crack on the wheel—please trim your nails on Friday night! Our finished cups will be baked in a kiln and mailed to school in June.

See you at the bus stop at 8:20 a.m.,
Mr. Hayashi

Preparing for the Pottery Trip — Questions

(28) What two items will each member make on the potter's wheel?

1 Three soup bowls.

2 Two large flower vases.

3 One teacup and one small plate.

4 A teapot and a spoon.

(29) Why should members trim their fingernails on Friday night?

1 They have a cooking test on Saturday.

2 They will play basketball before lunch.

3 Gloves are too small for long nails.

4 Long nails can crack soft clay bowls on the wheel.

(30) When will the baked pottery arrive at the school?

1 Next December.

2 On Saturday evening.

3 In June.

4 On Friday night.

The Rainy-Day Board Game Shelf

In June, heavy rain kept students indoors during lunch break almost every day at Minami Junior High School. Twelve-year-old Koharu noticed many seventh graders sitting quietly at their desks with nothing to do while the playground was muddy.

At home that weekend, Koharu opened a closet and saw three board games—othello, shogi, and a word-card game—that she and her older brother no longer played. She asked her homeroom teacher, Ms. Ota, if Class 1-A could set up a "Rainy-Day Game Corner" on the back shelf.

Ms. Ota loved the idea and added one simple rule: anyone borrowing a game wrote their name on a small whiteboard and checked that all pieces were back in the box five minutes before fifth period. Within three days, four classmates brought puzzles and card games from home too.

Soon, laughter filled the classroom even on the gloomiest June afternoons, and Koharu made friends with classmates she had barely spoken to in April.

The Rainy-Day Board Game Shelf — Questions

(31) Why did students have to stay indoors during lunch break in June?

1 The playground fence was broken.

2 Heavy rain made the playground muddy.

3 It was snowing hard.

4 They had final exams every day.

(32) Where did Koharu find the othello and shogi sets?

1 In a closet at her home.

2 At a toy shop near the station.

3 Inside the school gym.

4 In Ms. Ota's desk.

(33) What rule did Ms. Ota add for borrowing games?

1 Take the games home every night.

2 Pay ten yen each time you play.

3 Play only after school ends.

4 Write your name and check all pieces five minutes before fifth period.

(34) What did four classmates do within three days?

1 They painted the classroom wall.

2 They brought puzzles and card games from home too.

3 They joined the shogi club in another town.

4 They lost all the othello pieces.

(35) What good change happened for Koharu?

1 She became the student council president.

2 She won a national shogi prize.

3 She made friends with classmates she had hardly talked to in April.

4 She stopped raining in June.
